

ROLE DESCRIPTION

VALOR NEWS, MEDIA AND ENTERTAINMENT FACULTY AND PROGRAM LEADER

ROLE SUMMARY

Team members at Valor Christian High School are charged with preparing tomorrow's leaders to transform the world for Christ. Every member must live out a compelling relationship with Jesus Christ that is central to daily instruction and interactions with students, parents and others in the Valor community. The Valor News, Media and Entertainment Faculty and Program Leader will work collaboratively with students and area leaders to develop a thriving, convergent, interactive media platform for student-produced stories and news broadcasts, as well as live event coverage, including the Valor Sports Network program.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Possess and Model a Growing Relationship with Christ

- Pursue full devotion to Christ and live a life that reflects that authenticity
- Model the fruits of the spirit in communications, relationships and daily work
- Demonstrate teachability and a willing heart for service
- Embody others-centered, servant-leadership in all interactions

Demonstrate Trustworthy Commitment to Valor Christian High School

- Accept and uphold Valor's Statement of Faith
- Accept and abide by all affirmations in Valor's Annual Statement of Commitment

Provide Strategic, Effective, Inspiring Team Support

- Uphold and embody Valor's culture as set forth in the Valor Culture Document
- Model servant leadership, grace and love in all relationships and interactions
- Provide team support regarding all matters, processes and initiatives

Demonstrate a Commitment to Fulfilling Valor's Vision and Mission

- Assume collaborative responsibility for Operating Plan Goals and budget management
- Be a 'culture- keeper'

Demonstrate a Commitment to Growth

- Participate in Valor Team meetings and weekly meetings with Supervisor and/or team
- Demonstrate teachability and receptive to feedback
- Pursue professional/personal/spiritual growth and development
- Participate in the broader ministry of Valor by contributing of time, talent and treasure beyond assigned role responsibilities

Serve Wholeheartedly as an Exceptional Teammate

- Demonstrate loyalty to teammates in action and word
- Pursue and uphold relational unity with Team members
- Assist Team members to facilitate school-wide wins

ROLE SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES

Collaborate with Key Stakeholders to Support the School with Exceptional Media

-
- Lead the broadcast and VSN classes, and work alongside student production teams to teach, mentor and lead

- Teach and lead students to develop and provide live broadcast capability for Arts, Discovery, Academics, Student Life and/or Admissions
- Develop and build upon the current Broadcasting and Media Program while building and promoting a new media delivery platform for school media
- Meet regularly with pillar and department leaders to identify story ideas with an emphasis on promoting and enhancing school culture
- Envision and/or craft stories that support all areas of Valor, and unify the various program areas of Valor
- Assist in the production of Valor original content
- Manage fiscal responsibilities for the Broadcast program, Valor Sports Network and the television studio in collaboration with key stakeholders
-

RELATIONSHIPS

- Arts + Media Team and Leadership
- Valor Area Directors
- Athletics Communications Team
- Students
- Brand Team
- Various Faculty and Staff regarding projects and assignments
- Parents
- Community and external vendors
- Other Valor Departments as needed

RESULTS

- An invested, passionate student production team will produce a digital media portal that captures and shares Valor culture through compelling stories, dynamic weekly newscasts, strategic social media exposure, and professionally produced live event coverage
- Valor's broadcasting program and television studio facilities and functionality will be developed into a premier Valor Arts + Media program

EDUCATION, EXPERIENCE, AND REQUIRED COMPETENCIES

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in a related discipline
- Solid biblical and theological foundation and understanding
- Experience with high school aged students and leading a classroom is beneficial
- The ability to comfortably connect and collaborate with others in a manner that builds trust and inspires creativity and confidence is critical
- High level film and broadcast skills, including camera work, familiarity with switching units, audio and foley work, lighting skills, and editing skills in Adobe Premiere or similar
- Knowledge and experience with live broadcasting and news reporting would be extremely beneficial

POSITION TYPE: A, Full-time

HOURS PER WEEK: Full-time with some nights and weekends

SUPERVISOR: Visual Arts and Media Department Chair